Theme: TWISTED SCRIPTURE When the Bible is misused and misunderstood.

Throughout history, well-meaning people have taken some of the trickiest passages of the Bible and tried to make sense of them. Unfortunately, through the process, Scripture often gets twisted from its original meaning, and even used to do harm. At Seabeck, we are going to look at a few of these misused Bible verses, and see if we can't straighten a few things out. Join us! You matter to God.

Our input Speaker: Rev. Ric Sewell

Ric is currently serving as pastor at Christ United Methodist Church in Portland, Oregon. He previously served churches in Idaho, Missouri, and Kansas. He is currently working on a Doctor of Ministry from St. Paul School of Theology. When he's not writing sermons and connecting with people over coffee and beer, you can find him exploring parks with his family, drawing portraits of his children, and dreaming about a clean office.

2021 Camp Fee Information:

Rates posted below are for full-time campers with 6 nights lodging (bedding and towels included!), 17 meals including Friday's Salmon Bake, and all entertainment, recreation and program fees. Part time rates are available (space permitting).

2021 Housing Information:

I will do my best to get you into your first housing choice or similar building. Housing is assigned using your first choice as well as other factors such as timely requests, placing "early to bed" families together in the same cabin etc. Please make sure to list whether you'd like to be housed with other families or friends.

For more information about housing including photos and descriptions of rooms, please visit the Seabeck Christian Conference Center website at www.seabeck.org

For information on available housing or part time rates, contact Missy Peterson, Registrar, at 360-388-6583 or email her at missygpeterson@comcast.net
